2. Client acknowledges being advised that bankruptcy law allows utility companies to require a deposit for continued service.
3. Client acknowledges being advised that filing bankruptcy of itself WILL NOT STOP credit union payroll deductions or electronic fund transfers from a bank account. Client must withdraw the written permission given for those deductions to stop them.

7. Client acknowledges that student loans are not dischargeable unless the debtor can prove hardship.

These courses must be offered without regard to a debtor's ability to pay for the course. A list of approved programs can be found on the U.S. Trustee's Web site at www.usdoj.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/de\_approved.htm.

If a debtor does not complete the course, the court can, and in many districts this has become the practice, close the debtor's case without a discharge. CLIENT ACKNOWLEDGES THAT ATTORNEY'S REPRESENTATION OF CLIENT TERMINATES THE MOMENT THE DISCHARGE IS ISSUED.

RECEIVING INHERITANCE AND OTHER PROPERTY. If you receive certain property or become a beneficiary of anyone's estate within 180 days of the date your bankruptcy petition was filed, you must tell your Attorney because the trustee must be advised within ten days through your Attorney of the nature and extent of the property you will receive.

DISCLOSURE OF REQUIRED NOTICES

BAPCPA REQUIRED NOTICE NO. 1 (§ 342(b)(1) and 527(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code) PURPOSES, BENEFITS AND COSTS OF BANKRUPTCY

This discussion is intended only as a brief overview of the types of bankruptcy. You should not decide whether or not to file for bankruptcy relief solely on this information. Bankruptcy law is complex, and there are many considerations that must be taken into account in making the determination whether or not to file. Anyone considering bankruptcy is encouraged to make a decision only after seeking the advice and assistance of an experienced bankruptcy attorney.

When a person is discharged in bankruptcy, he or she is relieved from liability for most debts incurred before the bankruptcy was filed and protected from future collection of those debts. The purpose of bankruptcy is to give you a "fresh start," and the bankruptcy code is interpreted by the Courts to give effect to these words.

Types of Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy is a legal way to avoid paying people what you owe them. The Bankruptcy Code is divided into chapters. The chapters that usually apply to consumers are Chapter 7, where most or all of your debt is wiped out, and Chapter 13, which involves a repayment plan. In most cases, once you file your case, the "Automatic Stay" immediately goes into effect. The Automatic Stay means that a bankruptcy filing automatically stops, or stays, and brings to a halt most lawsuits, repossessions, foreclosures, evictions, garnishments, attachments, utility shut-offs, and debt collection harassment. Generally, creditors cannot take any further action against you or your property without permission from the Bankruptcy Court.

Chapter 7. Chapter 7 is designed for people who are having financial difficulties and are not able to re-pay their debts. Under the changes to the Bankruptcy Code that took effect October 17, 2005, you can usually qualify for a Chapter 7 if your average gross monthly income for the last six months is below your state's Median Income, your gross income less certain expenses is below your state's Median Income, or you can show "special circumstances" that would allow you to qualify for Chapter 7. The filing fee for a Chapter 7 is $335.00.

Under Chapter 7, you can usually exempt, or keep, most or all of your assets under either Federal Law or Illinois Law, or, if you have not lived in Illinois for the past two years, under the state's exemption law that applies to your case. Most retirement accounts and pensions are also exempt in whole or in part. Secured property, normally your car and house, may not have any net equity, in which case you can keep them as well. The Trustee liquidates most non-exempt property and uses the proceeds to pay your creditors according to priorities of the Bankruptcy Code.

Once your Chapter 7 case is over, you receive a Discharge. The discharge prevents your creditors from taking any steps to try to collect their unsecured debt. They cannot call you, write you, sue you, or take any steps that could be considered an attempt to collect its debt. If you want to keep property that has a lien on it, you must keep your payments current, and may be required to reaffirm your debt. Some debts can not be discharged. Typical examples are child support, alimony, and other domestic support obligations, some taxes, student loans, criminal restitution, and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating vehicles while intoxicated with alcohol or drugs.

Chapter 13. Chapter 13 is a valuable tool that lets you catch up overdue mortgage or car payments, taxes and domestic support obligations. It also applies where you have the ability to repay some or all of your debts over time. You must have less than $307,675 in unsecured debt (such as credit cards and doctor's bills) and less than $922,975 in secured debt (such as mortgages and car loans) to qualify for Chapter 13. The filing fee for a Chapter 13 is $310.00. Under Chapter 13, you keep all of your property, both exempt and non-exempt, as long as you resume making your regular payments on secured debt and keep current under the repayment plan that you propose. In certain circumstances it may be possible to reduce a car payment. A repayment plan can last for up to five years. After finishing your payments, most of your unsecured debts are discharged.

Chapter 11. Chapter 11 is designed primarily for business reorganization, but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complex. In the vast majority of cases, Chapter 11 is unnecessary and too expensive for most consumer debtors. The filing fee for Chapter 11 is $1,717.00.

Chapter 12. Chapter 12 lets family farmers repay their debts over a period of time, and is in many ways similar to a Chapter 13. The filing fee for a Chapter 12 is $275.00.

Credit Counseling. Reputable credit counselors can advise you on managing your money and your debts. They may also be able to develop a plan to repay your debts. Unfortunately, many credit counselors are not reputable and charge high fees and contributions that will cause you to fall deeper into debt and damage your credit rating. Furthermore, many misrepresent their non-profit status and/or their affiliations with religious or charitable organizations, and are little more than collection agents for the credit card companies.

Under the changes to the Bankruptcy Code that took effect October 17, 2005, you are required to take two short credit counseling courses, one before you file bankruptcy, and one after you have filed. We will refer you to a reputable credit counselor who has been approved by the United States Trustee Department for these courses.

BAPCA REQUIRED NOTICE NO. 2 (§ 527(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) NOTICE OF MANDATORY DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMERS WHO CONTEMPLATE FILING BANKRUPTCY

Please Note: The following documents, disclosures, and notices are required by legislation adopted by Congress in 2005, after intense lobbying by the credit industry. Some practitioners believe they are designed to scare and intimidate good people who have had bad things happen to them and need debt relief. Some also believe that the following required Notices are based on the false assumption that all people who consider bankruptcy relief are dishonest. Please rest assured — so long as you are honest and meet the requirements set out under the law, you are entitled to debt relief. I can guide you through all the requirements of filing for bankruptcy, so long as you provide accurate and complete information.

General Instructions:

1. All information that the assisted person is required to provide with a petition and thereafter during a case under this title is required to be complete, accurate, and truthful.
2. All assets and all liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the replacement value of each asset as defined in 11 U.S.C. §506 must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value.
3. Current monthly income, the amounts specified in 11 U.S.C. §707(b)(2), and, in a case under Chapter 13 of this title, disposable income (determined in accordance with 11 U.S.C. §707(b)(2)) are required to be stated after reasonable inquiry.
4. Information that an assisted person provides during his or her case may be audited pursuant to this title, and failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of the case under this title or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

Instructions on Providing Information Required by Bankruptcy Law:

You are required to provide certain information to the court when you file bankruptcy. It is my obligation to make diligent inquiry of you so as to obtain information to include in your bankruptcy petition. I will be asking you for information concerning the following areas and possibly others. There will be additional information and possibly documents we will need you to bring back at your next appointment. I will give you a list of the documents I will need at your first appointment. I will need at least the following information to help you with your case:

Valuation of Assets: You need to value your assets based on the replacement value of the property as of the date your case is filed without deducting the costs of sale or marketing. If the property was acquired for personal, family, or household purposes, replacement value shall mean the price a retail merchant would charge for property of that kind considering the age and condition of the property (at the time value is determined). If you are uncertain of the value of your property, you should inform your attorney/paralegal and then contact a merchant who sells property of that kind and inquire as to the price that merchant would charge.

Determination of Current Monthly Income: In order to determine your income for purposes of your bankruptcy, you will need to provide some evidence about any source of income you or your spouse received in the preceding six months. Evidence of income may include pay stubs, statements from your employer, bank statements, or a letter from your employer. If you have other proof of income, please bring it to your next appointment. Also, if you or your spouse's income has changed in the last six months, you need to bring this to the attention of your attorney.

Types of Debt That Must Be Listed and Disclosed: You must list all your debts, including but not limited to (a) debts you don't believe you should owe; (b) debts that will not be discharged, such as student loans and child support; (c) debts that you intend to pay; (d) debts that you cosigned for someone else or that someone else cosigned for you; and (e) debts to family members.

Amount of Non-Priority Unsecured Debt: You will need to know the amount of your non-priority unsecured debt. This is debt that does not have any collateral securing it and is generally not in the nature of taxes, alimony, maintenance, or support. If you do not know the amount of your debt, you can get this information from your bills, court documents, or a credit report or from contacting your creditors directly.

Amount of Debt Owed to Secured and Priority Creditors: You will need to list all creditors who have any claim on any of your property as collateral for the debt. You will also need to list all creditors to whom you owe taxes, alimony, maintenance, child support, divorce decree obligations, etc. If you do not have this information, then you may be able to obtain it from your bills, a credit report, or court documents or from contacting your creditors directly.

Amount of Your Regular Monthly Expenses (Not Including Your Debts): You will need to be able to tell your attorney the amount you spend on your utilities, food, insurance premiums, expenses incurred to protect your family under the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act (or other applicable federal law), medical expenses, 401k contributions, and loan payments, donations for charity, payments for the care of family members, and any school expenses for a dependent child. In addition, if you have any extraordinary expenses that are reasonable and necessary, please list these as well.

How To Determine What Address Should Be Used for Each Creditor: If a creditor is still communicating with you, I will need the address supplied by the creditor in at least 2 communications over the last 90 days. Do not use the address to which you send payments; rather, use the correspondence address. Keep all mailings from your creditor, so we can keep up with any changes in the creditor's address and prove, if necessary, that we used the appropriate addresses.

BAPCPA REQUIRED NOTICE NO. 3 (§ 342(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code)
FRAUD & CONCEALMENT PROHIBITED

If you decide to file bankruptcy, it is important that you understand the following:

1. Some or all of the information you provide in connection with your bankruptcy will be filed with the bankruptcy court on forms or documents that you will be required to sign and declare as true under penalty of perjury.
2. A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury in connection with a bankruptcy case shall be subject to fine, imprisonment, or both.
3. All information you provide in connection with your bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General.

BAPCPA REQUIRED NOTICE NO. 4 (§ 527(b) of the Bankruptcy Code)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT BANKRUPTCY ASSISTANCE SERVICES FROM AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER:

If you decide to seek bankruptcy relief, you can represent yourself, you can hire an attorney to represent you, or you can get help in some localities from a bankruptcy petition preparer who is not an attorney. THE LAW REQUIRES AN ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER TO GIVE YOU A WRITTEN CONTRACT SPECIFYING WHAT THE ATTORNEY OR BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER WILL DO FOR YOU AND HOW MUCH IT WILL COST. Ask to see the contract before you hire anyone.

The following information helps you understand what must be done in a routine bankruptcy case to help you evaluate how much service you need. Although bankruptcy can be complex, many cases are routine. An attorney can help guide you through this intricate process, making it easier and less stressful for you.

Before filing a bankruptcy case, either you or your attorney should analyze your eligibility for different forms of debt relief available under the Bankruptcy Code and which form of relief is most likely to be beneficial for you. Be sure you understand the relief you can obtain and its limitations. To file a bankruptcy case, documents called a Petition, Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, as well as in some cases a Statement of Intention need to be prepared correctly and filed with the bankruptcy court. You will have to pay a filing fee to the bankruptcy court. Once your case starts, you will have to attend the required first meeting of creditors where you will be questioned by a court official called a "trustee" and, much more rarely, by creditors.

If you choose to file a Chapter 7 case, you may be asked by a creditor to reaffirm a debt. You may want help deciding whether to do so. A creditor is not permitted to coerce you into reaffirming your debts. It may not be in your best interest to reaffirm a debt.

If you choose to file a Chapter 13 case in which you repay your creditors what you can afford over 3 to 5 years, you may also want help with preparing your Chapter 13 plan and with the confirmation hearing on your plan which, if held, will be before a bankruptcy judge.

If you select another type of relief under the Bankruptcy Code other than Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, you will want to find out what should be done from someone familiar with that type of relief. However, please be advised that in most cases, you will only be concerned with Chapter 7 and Chapter 13.

Your bankruptcy case may also involve litigation. You are generally permitted to represent yourself in litigation in bankruptcy court, but only attorneys, not bankruptcy petition preparers, can give you legal advice.
